A Mountain-size Dream

by Jennifer Fox

Big transformations begin with a big idea. Inspired by the story of how ordinary citizens helped create the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, this article challenges us to consider: What is Henry County's mountain moonshot? Read more and learn how you can be part of the community conversation.

Judy Melton Award

Congrats to Mike & Patty Broyles

We’re proud to announce that Mike and Patty Broyles are this year’s recipients of the Judy Melton Award!

This award recognizes individuals whose generosity, leadership, and commitment to serving others reflect the legacy of Judy Melton. Through their dedication to Henry County and passion for making a difference, Mike and Patty have touched countless lives and strengthened our community.

Thank you, Mike and Patty, for your servant hearts, your unwavering support of our community, and the example you set for all of us. Your impact will be felt for generations to come.

Flood Relief Efforts

Flood Recovery Donations

In partnership with the Henry County Emergency Management, the Henry County Foundation and Heart of Indiana United Way are accepting donations to help those affected by flooding.

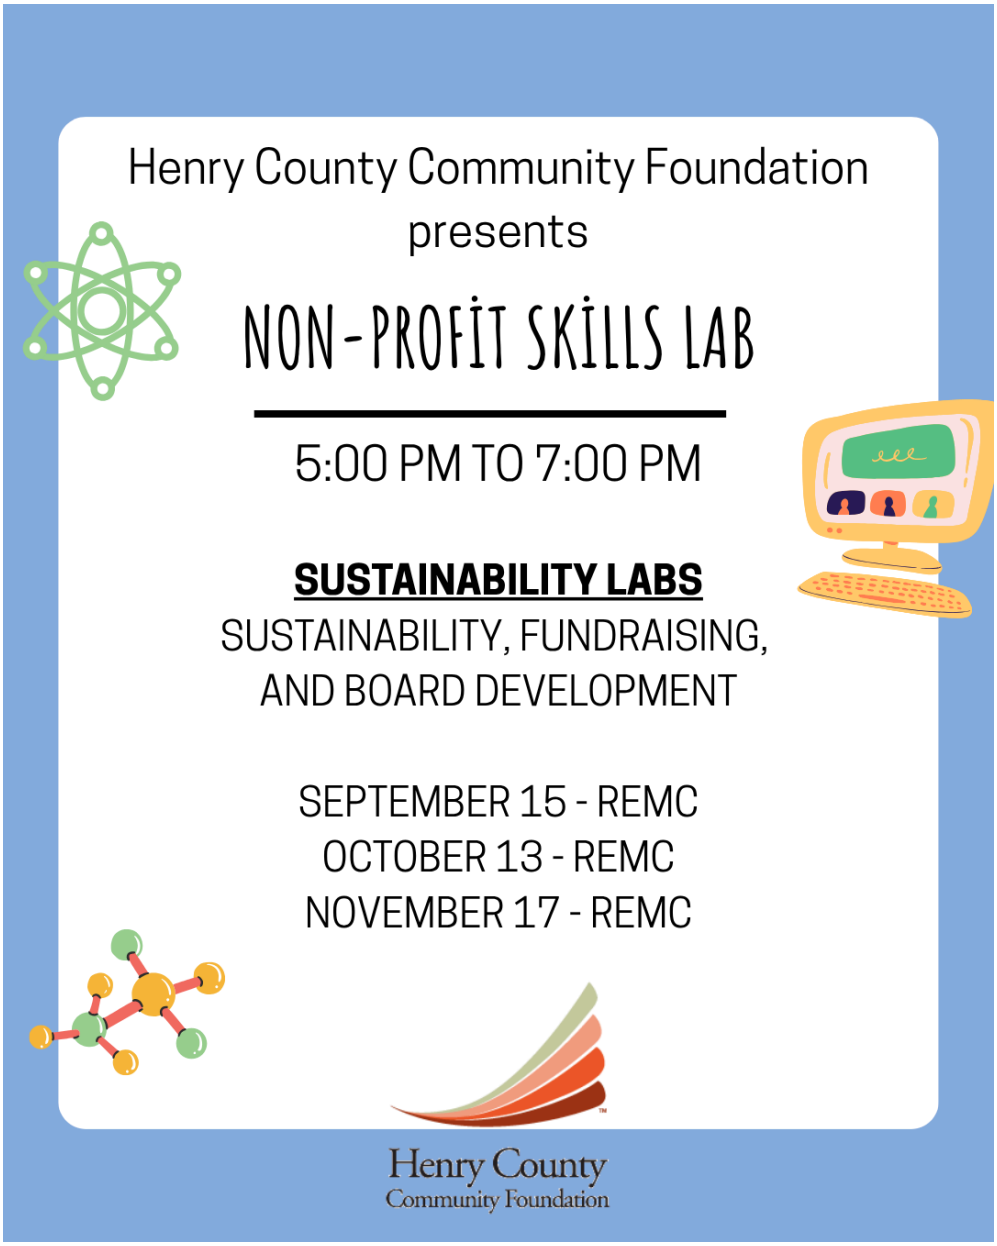

Funds raised will support relief and recovery efforts for individuals and families facing challenges in the aftermath of this event.

To help nonprofits meet urgent community needs, donate here.

Henry County Community Foundation - Disaster Relief Fund

If donations exceed immediate needs, funds will be utilized for long-term recovery efforts.
